

The Women Learning English (WISH) programme

Would you like to help

- a mother,
- a grand mother,
- an aunty,
- a woman friend who ...

- is not able to speak, read or write in English ?
- cannot make phone calls, or take messages in English?
- does not go out on her own because she cannot read signs in English ?

. WISH classes are for women who wants to learn Basic Conversational English.

. Class is free-of-charge.

. Classes are conducted by trained women volunteers.

. Class runs once a week for about six months in selected libraries.

• Help these women feel useful, needed and confident !

• Let them meet fellow-women with similar needs;

• Change their lives with a little learning!

• Help these women enrol today!

Help these women fill in a WISH enrolment form.

Obtain an enrolment form from the Library Customer Service Counter, and mail the completed form to:

The WISH Co-Ordinator

The Society for Reading & Literacy, Singapore

33 Sembawang Hills Drive,
Singapore 575909

Please direct all enquiries to wish@srl.org.sg or tel: 64551218

For more information on SRL and NLB events, visit our respective websites at www.nlb.gov.sg and www.srl.org.sg

Jointly organised with

National Library Board